

Lennar Charitable Housing Foundation

Board of Directors

Mike White, CFO

In June 1998, Mike White joined Lennar as Vice President and Treasurer for the Western Region. Under White's leadership, the treasury department has grown to manage and close over forty loan deals in excess of over $725 million. He has successfully facilitated the loan structure and implementation of cash management systems. Prior to his tenure at Lennar, White served as Vice President of the Real Estate Industries Department at Sanwa Bank of California where he was directly responsible for a loan portfolio of over $175 million. His client base represented some of the most reputable developers in the business. In addition, he has also held a consulting position with the accounting firm of KPMG Peat Marwick, where he managed market and feasibility studies, economic valuations and operational reviews for all real estate needs across the Western Region.

White is a graduate of the University of Nevada, where he holds a B.S. degree in Hotel and Business Administration.

He resides in Aliso Viejo, California with his wife Patti and his two children, Christopher and Danielle. A family man, he is heavily involved in the Indian Guides and baseball with his kids.

Over the years White has been involved with several charities including the Sacramento Food Bank and the Special Olympics.
